

POLITICAL CRISIS COMING IN GERMANY

Liberals Demand Peace on Best Terms Obtainable and Junkers Seek to Save Their Prestige—Reichstag May Decide Very Soon.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Germany's political crisis is developing very rapidly, according to information reaching official and diplomatic circles this afternoon. The Liberal leaders are a unit in demanding that an early peace be made on the best possible terms obtainable. The Junker and war party leaders are temporizing, seeking a way out that will save their prestige.

The entire question is expected to come to a head on the floor of the Reichstag almost immediately. Should the Liberals win, they are expected to force an immediate political change which will, in addition to completely taking from the Kaiser all power to make war or peace also make the ministry completely responsible to the Reichstag which will create it.

Such action, according to the information reaching here, would be declared by the Liberal leaders to be the step demanded by President Wilson's decision and "would destroy every arbitrary power that can separately, secretly and of its single choice disturb the peace of the world; or, * * * at the least, its reduction to virtual impotency."

The Junker leaders are reported as unable to agree on a program. They are said to admit that the army can do nothing to save the situation, although they are still claiming that the Hindenburg program will prevent an invasion of Germany by the Allied forces. And they are said to be doing everything possible to prevent any movement toward an armistice on the military terms which President Wilson has said were the only ones on which any cessation of hostilities was possible.

The degree of their success, however, will depend on whether the commanders in the field are able to continue to withdraw their forces with the comparatively small losses that have marked the retreat to date. And military experts here today said that they saw indications that this will be impossible and that the German military losses from now on will continue to increase at a very rapid rate.

The entire situation is developing so rapidly that officials believe that a few more days at the most will show just what is to be expected. If the Liberals win in the Reichstag it is expected that peace men will take over the German foreign policy. Then immediate action to comply with the demands of President Wilson can be looked for.

Even if the Liberals are not able to get their entire program across they will have succeeded in so increasing the powers of the Reichstag, with a corresponding limitation of the crown's power, that a democratic Germany cannot long be delayed.

The Liberals are having the aid for the first time of many of the German millionaires who heretofore have sided with the Junkers. These men are extremely fearful, reports received here say, that a German Bolshevik movement is impending. Consequently, they are urging reforms and peace at any cost for purely selfish reasons. Throughout all of the industrial regions of Germany intense nervousness is reported to prevail and some of these say that the government really is faced with the alternative of "peace or a revolution."

President Wilson, it is officially stated, is ready for any development that may come. He has taken steps to safeguard the interests of the United States in every way. He will not countenance any exchange of notes designed by the German leaders merely to "keep the peace issue alive." But the moment that Germany shows she is ready to meet the terms recited for her benefit, in good faith, then the president will take the steps required to carry out his publicly announced program.

In the meantime he has given orders that there shall be no let-up in the war preparations. The troops will continue to hurry overseas and every energy will be devoted to keeping supplies going to Pershing. "There is no question that the war is won but the actual end may yet be a long way off." It is the way one of the high administration officials described the situation this afternoon. But whether the end comes at once or is delayed for a month or so, it is inevitable. And every day that the war continues means that Germany will have just that much more to answer for, officials say.

Up to the present there has been no indication that the German submarines have been ordered to return to port or that the retreating German armies are refraining from destroying everything in territory abandoned by them. The fact that they did not destroy Lille and Ostend was said by the military experts to be due more to the fact that they did not have time to do it, than a desire to at least conform to the usages of warfare.

IN THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY

FRANK J. MAHAR.

Frank J. Mahar, of New York city, formerly of Kingston, and son of the late Daniel Mahar, who resigned his position six months ago with the British Ministry of Munitions of War, and who enlisted in the Quartermaster's Corps, is now stationed in France, and word has been received by his mother that he is well, and enjoying camp life.

Word has been received from Herbert Harbeck of 101 Green street, this city, that he has arrived safely overseas. He is a member of Ordnance Reinforcement Detachment.

DuBois J. Gillette of the Judge Advocate's Department, U. S. A., Eastern Department Governor's Island, and Travis Dewey Gillette, yeoman in Headquarters U. S. Naval Reserve New York city, came home last Saturday on short furlough to spend a few days with their parents, Superintendent and Mrs. John U. Gillette, Port Ewen. On Sunday they were both taken with grip. DuBois has nearly recovered and Travis is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner J. Oakley of Kyserike have received word of the safe arrival overseas of their older son, Wallace Oakley, who left Napoleon with the contingent July 24 for Camp Dix and left for France the week of August 12. His present address is Private Wallace Oakley, Battery D, 334 F. Artillery, A. E. F., via New York, somewhere in France. Their second son, William, is now in camp and his address in Private William Oakley, 3rd Brigade F. A. R. D., Camp Jackson, Columbia Co., South Carolina. Both boys will be pleased to hear of their many friends at the above addresses.

Makes a Generous Offer.

Joseph S. Pessenar, proprietor of the West Shore Hotel on Railroad avenue, a few days ago made an offer to Mayor Canfield of the use of his hotel during the continuation of the influenza epidemic, free of charge. He says he will move out if given "forty-eight hours" notice. There are a large number of rooms, two baths and toilets on each floor and steam heat and good ventilation. Besides there is a complete kitchen and dining room. Mr. Pessenar says his offer is in earnest and is of the opinion the hotel would make an excellent emergency hospital.

To Open Soup Canteen.

At a meeting of ladies this morning it was unanimously resolved to open a canteen at St. John's parish house to supply soup daily to the sick in their homes in co-operation with the Red Cross and Motor Corps. All ladies of St. John's are invited to help by sending money to Mrs. Hear, 55 Albany avenue, treasurer, or by giving personal service at the parish house during the morning. Mrs. Leighton Williams can be notified at the rectory, 19 Green street.

Reunion of New Paltz.

The annual reunion of the 156th Regiment will be held at New Paltz on Saturday. At 10 o'clock there will be business meeting at the Post room, a dinner at noon and a camp fire at 2 o'clock in the rooms of Eltinge Post. Theodore Webster is president of the regimental union; Z. G. Rhodes secretary.

Edgelyville Makes Good.

Edgelyville is setting a good example for other places in Ulster county. It has already raised its payment for the Liberty Loan, and several thousands of dollars over, but they are still working.

Register, before 10 o'clock tonight.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

By Lieut.-Colonel JOHN McRAE

(Physician)

(Died while on duty in Flanders.)

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard among the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago,
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands, we throw
The torch. Be yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

From London "Punch."

Can YOU fail to heed these words from the DEAD in Flanders, who gave their lives to SAVE YOU and the Purity and Happiness of the World?

Let no man satisfy his conscience by arguing with himself that others will perform his duty! Be true men! Invest in the Fourth Liberty Loan! Take up the Torch: "Be yours to hold it high!"

ZEEBRUGGE CAPTURED BY BRITISH FORCES

German Retreat Widely Extended—Brussels Also Taken—Serbians Continue Success in the Balkans.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, Oct. 18.—(3:15 p. m.)—The former German submarine base of Zeebrugge, on the Belgian coast has been captured, according to an unconfirmed report received here this afternoon.

The entire Belgian coast has been occupied by Allied forces, it was reported. Bruges has been entered.

The new German retreat, which began on the Flanders battle front, has now extended to the eleven-mile zone between the Scheldt and Oise rivers, northeast of Laon.

The magnitude of the magnificent victory won by the British, Belgians and French between the North Sea and Douai continues to grow. The Allies are now nearly 35 miles into Belgium and have opened up the way for a drive towards Ghent and Brussels.

Advancing past Lille the British have reached the outskirts of Tournai and it is probably that this important French city is now in Allied hands.

Ostend and Bruges have been captured, and Zeebrugge is ready to fall and Eecloo, only four miles from the Dutch frontier, is menaced. The German army standing on the North Sea coast was completely routed.

With the fall of Lille and Douai and the two-mile advance southeast of Cambrai, carried out yesterday by American and British troops, the Allies are only two miles away from Wassigny, an important German concentration center.

East of Lille the Germans are being thrown back upon the Belgian frontier over a wide front.

The French are approaching Guise (15 miles northeast of St. Quentin), a highly strategic rail and highway point on the Oise.

It is possible that, if the weather allows the Allies to continue their offensive operations in the north, the Germans may fall back upon a line running from Antwerp through Brussels, Mons and Valenciennes.

American engineers attached to the American army northwest of Verdun have again distinguished themselves. After the infantry had become exhausted the engineers were thrown in and quickly captured Hill 299 in a storm assault.

(It was American engineers who helped the British army save Amiens in March, when the Germans made their big offensive there.)

The Serbians continue their drive northward in the Balkans and are now only 95 miles from Belgrade.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL DOING EXCELLENT WORK

Twenty-four Patients. Being Treated at Noon Today—Work Systematized and Best of Care and Food Being Supplied.

Twenty-four cases of pneumonia and influenza were being treated at the emergency hospital at the Armory today at noon.

Things are running smoothly and the work is being systematized.

Dr. Laidlaw is the physician in charge and is on duty during the night. During the day the work is divided amongst the local physicians as follows:

8:30 to 11 a. m., Dr. Day.
11 a. m. to 1 p. m., Dr. Van Hoeverberg.

1 to 2 p. m., Dr. O'Meara.
2 to 5 p. m., Dr. Chandler.
6 to 9 p. m., Dr. Gates.
9 to 11 p. m., Dr. Chandler.
Night, Dr. Laidlaw.

Miss Bates, the child welfare nurse, is the nurse in charge during the day and Miss Mildred Smith, the trained nurse from Albany, during the night. They are assisted by volunteers who have taken a course in home nursing but the giving of medicines is left to the trained nurses.

Those volunteers who have no nursing experience, and there are a great many of them, both men and women, do the other work such as cleaning, cooking, etc. The work is divided into three shifts beginning at 8 a. m. No labor is too menial for them; they scrub, clean and work willingly and in a thorough fashion. The work of the kitchen is left to the school teachers who have gone into the spirit of the thing and who are working in that devoted, self-sacrificing way shown by all the volunteers. Several grocers have sent supplies which are thankfully received.

Contrary to the impression had by many people the drill room of the Armory is not being used by the hospital. The commanding officer's room is used as the office and the parlors and non-commissioned officers' rooms are occupied by the patients. Kingston is not the first city to use its Armory as an emergency hospital, in fact, nearly all the cities throughout the country where the epidemic has spread are using their armories for the same purpose.

Several of the taxi companies have offered the use of their closed cars and many individuals are doing the same. The city ambulance is bringing in the patients, the policemen wearing face masks while they perform their duties.

Mrs. George Chandler is in charge of the office during the day and Miss Smith at night.

Mrs. Gordon Reed has volunteered to supply the hospital with home made broth, jellies, pickles and chutney.

A baby's crib is needed badly at once. Anyone who has one to spare should communicate with the hospital immediately. It will not be returned as it will be of no use after

MARSEILLAISE SUNG IN BERLIN

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
London, Oct. 18.—A demonstration was carried out in front of the Reichstag building in Berlin on Wednesday with crowds marching through the streets singing the Marseillaise, said a dispatch from Amsterdam today, giving the semi-official Cologne Gazette as the source of the information.

EIGHT HOUR DAY IN CORNELL SHOPS

The employees of the Cornell Machine Shops were notified on Thursday that commencing today they would be granted an eight hour day. The men now start work at 8 a. m. and quit at 4:30 p. m. Before they began work at 8:55 a. m. and finished their day's labor at 5:35. The granting of an eight hour day was a voluntary act on the part of the company, no demand having been made for it by the employees. The men are well pleased with their new schedule.

Make Nuts Do Double Duty.

Perhaps it is not quite understood that nuts for the making of carbon for gas masks, can do double duty. If the nuts are carefully cracked and the meats taken out as nearly or entirely whole, they can be sold for a good sum, to confectionery or drug stores where for cream sodas, etc., are sold. Then the shells will be ready for the Red Cross, for only the shells, not the meats, can be used in the making of the carbon for the gas masks. Boys and girls in the country, especially where there has been no visitation of the influenza, can have a lot of fun cracking and picking out the nut meats, and then can sell the same—or make them into candy to be sold—either for the benefit of the Red Cross, or some other charity, and get the shell to the nearest Red Cross headquarters.

It is used in the hospital. All the volunteers are being praised by those in charge. The people of Kingston have adapted themselves to the unusual conditions prevailing and are helping wherever and whenever they can.

M'ADOO MAKES FINAL APPEAL

Do Your Duty in the Loan Campaign as Well as Our Soldiers in France are Doing Theirs.

Washington, Oct. 17, 1918.

Freeman, Kingston, N. Y.

Subscriptions reported and estimated up to noon Thursday amount to four billion dollars, leaving at least two billion dollars, to complete the Fourth Liberty Loan. Only two days are left within which to raise this vast sum. No country on earth but America can do it and must do it.

The destinies of the world and the hopes of civilization are centered upon America. We shall fail in everything we have fought for and hope to gain in this war if the Fourth Liberty Loan is defeated. Let every true American today examine himself under the white light of patriotism and say whether or not he has done his utmost in this emergency.

The highest obligations of duty and patriotism command every true American to go immediately to his bank or to his Liberty Loan Committee and subscribe to the limit of his ability to the Fourth Liberty Bonds. Don't delay; don't wait to be urged. Be as quick to do your part in this Fourth Liberty Loan battle as our soldiers in France are quick to obey their orders to charge the enemy. Buy Liberty Bonds on the installment plan if you cannot buy them for cash. Every patriotic bank will help you. If every patriotic citizen will do his duty today victory for the Fourth Liberty Loan is certain. The continued victories of our armies in Europe, the certain defeat of our enemies and glorious triumph of the cause of liberty depend upon the American people during the remaining two days of the Liberty Loan campaign.

W. G. McADOO.

$10,000 MINIMUM CLUB IS GROWING

Kingston Capitalists Move to Make the Liberty Loan a Success by Subscribing At Least $10,000 Each.

In compliance with the suggestions of Secretary McAdoo and a proper sense of our duty, also realizing that the success of the 4th Liberty Loan is in jeopardy and knowing the failure of the loan in Kingston would have a serious effect on the spirits of our boys who have gone to fight, to suffer and probably die, that we may live in peace, do gladly and willingly pledge ourselves to do our utmost, by complying to the demands on us and enroll ourselves as members of the $10,000 Minimum Club, trusting that all who can in any way possible will join us.

SHIPYARD MEN BUY $50,000 OF BONDS

Secretary Hudson of the Chamber of Commerce, reports of the Liberty Loan campaign that at the Kingston Ship Building Corporation $50,000 was subscribed by the employees. This total will be increased.

At a meeting of the workers attended by the industrial committee composed of C. R. Stull, Postmaster Wm. C. DeWitt, Wm. E. Simmonds, Secretary Hudson of Chamber of Commerce, Charles O'Connor, chairman of the Liberty Loan committee, present.

Postmaster DeWitt and Mr. Schoonmaker, both addressed the employees. Mr. Schoonmaker called attention to the honor roll of the employees of the Kingston Ship Building Corporation that are now in the service and he urged the other employees to back up these men by buying bonds.

Total so far by the industrial committee, $215,000. This includes $66,000 reported by Mr. Watts, chairman of the merchants' committee.

LIBERTY LOAN HOUSE CANVASS

The House Committee of the Liberty Loan of which Mayor Canfield is chairman, made a supplemental report last night which disclosed that satisfactory work had been done by the workers, although they have been seriously handicapped by the epidemic. The industrial plants and the business places had been canvassed before the House Committee commenced its work. As the pledges average less than two hundred dollars each, the report shows real work and that it is not the result of a few large subscriptions. The report of last night is as follows:

Ward	Capitalists	Amount
1—C. R. Loughran	.....	$21,250
2—Fred J. Roosa	.....	12,400
3—William C. Coutant	.....	2,850

A STERN TASK FOR STERN WOMEN

There is nothing in the epidemic of SPANISH INFLUENZA to inspire panic. There is everything to inspire coolness and courage on the part of American women. A stern task confronts our women—not only trained women, but untrained women. The housewife, the dietitian, the nurse's aid, the practical nurse, the under-graduate nurse and the trained nurse herself—all of these are needed.

Humanity Calls Them Lives Depend Upon Their Answer

Capable, though untrained hands, can lighten the burden of the trained ones. There are many things intelligent women can do to relieve the situation, working under the direction of competent nurses.

Demand of the Day.
Today there is a greater demand for workers, real, live, ambitious, available workers than ever before in the world's history. Every office and shop in the land is calling for help, and the woman who is poor, but proud—too proud to roll up her sleeves and know the keen joy that comes from real, honest toil—is making one of life's saddest contributions. If she is also poor, while the opportunity is here, she will put that splendid sentiment in the background and seek out the opening that will assure her a living.

Just What She Wanted.
There was a splash and a splash, followed by another splash immediately afterward, as the would-be rescuer swam to where the lady had disappeared under the water. He caught her as she struggled to the surface and sought to calm her. "Don't struggle, dear," he whispered. "We are quite safe. The tube is quite safe and as safe as a mine and—"

CULLEN SAW U-BOAT BLOWN TO PIECES

Exciting Trip of Rondout Boy to France—Saw Chateau Thierry Battle Field—Glad to Get Freeman to Read.

Mrs. Michael Cullen of No. 171 Hunter street has received the following letter from her son, Thomas Cullen:

On Active Service with the American Expeditionary Force.
August 20th, 1918

Dear Mother:
Your most loving letter received some time ago but did not have the opportunity to answer it. I have been traveling from place to place, but I believe I have covered the whole of France. We came from the extreme north to the extreme south, and I guess I have hiked a million miles or more.

Have had some wonderful experiences since coming over. On our way south we passed over the battle ground at Chateau Thierry, which you have heard and read so much about; of course, it was the battle of the Marne; some night.

My address is Co. C, 388th Machine Gun Bn., A. E. F., France.

How is everything at home? Is the whole family well? How is Jim and Pop? In fact everybody?

Haven't run across Austin yet and I don't think I ever will. The division he's in was down to us at one time but could not locate; it is impossible now.

I suppose it must be awful dead in Kingston now, with all the fellows gone.

I received some Freeman's from Art Gallagher and was sure glad to get the paper. The paper looks good to you people over there. Well, it's all true, and it won't be long either before old Fritz will be on his knees.

When you receive this letter I want you to answer immediately whether you hear from me or not. I want you to write frequently, because it takes a long time to come over and when mail does come in the lads simply go wild. Tell everybody to write; nothing makes a fellow feel better than to get a letter now and then. Compose; meaning understand.

Am able to talk French fairly good now. When I get back I will let you have some of it.

How are things going on the battlefield; lots of work I suppose.

Do you get much mail from Austin? Tell Helen enclosed she will find a souvenir; it's small but it takes the place of a larger one. There is also a small one for you.

France is some picturesque country, especially this time of year; one can stand on a small knoll and look for miles over the green fields. I never saw so much wheat and oats fields in my life.

As I told you before, we had quite a trip coming over but did not tell you of the main thing; when I say that I mean subs. Oh, yes; we had quite an exciting trip across. I saw one sub get blown to pieces about 100 yards from our ship. Some close, eh? Wish I could tell you some more. It is impossible as the censor forbids us doing so. Wee wee; meaning yes, yes.

There is one thing you don't have to worry about and that is going to mass over here. I've been in so far as I had a church, and Catholic at that. This is a very religious country.

There is only one fellow from Kingston in our lot; his name is Jack Fleming; he drove Dr. Stern's car before coming into the army. Well he and I go to mass regularly; a fine fellow, too.

Well, I guess I will have to close for this time as we are quite busy in our new home. Give my regards to everybody and don't forget to write often. Tell everybody to write.

TOM

Ulster County Home Defense Committee, Kingston, N. Y.

Gentlemen:
We the undersigned, take this means of thanking you for the cordial treatment accorded us during recent visit to Kingston, when we attended the funeral of our late shipmate and friend, Harry Rieser.

Also, we extend our hearty thanks and appreciation to the four young ladies of the Motor Corps of America, who rendered such cheerful, willing service with their automobiles. Introductions were so quick that names were missed, but you know who we mean. We won't forget their kindness.

Your little city is a winner. We were treated royally, and the good will and fellowship shown by everyone with whom we came in contact, will not be forgotten soon.

We will always have a good word to say for Kingston. Believe us, it makes a fellow feel great to know that we have such an "army" behind the army and navy.

We could go along for pages expressing our gratitude, but we won't. Nevertheless, the feeling is there, in the simple words of "K. C. B." WE THANK YOU!

Solution to Sam Lloyd's "Liberty Loan" Puzzle

The accompanying design shows how the ten pieces of exploded shell are fitted together to produce a perfect bomb. A feature that not everybody discovered is the necessary turning over of one of the pieces. The white section had to be reversed in order to fit in its place.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for the kindness given to me in the sickness and death of my loved son, Henry, also for the beautiful floral tributes.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK KRATZ,
ELECTRIC AND SONS

Defense of Automobile.

Out at the old country church the male and female have been shown better than a kite by the automobile because automobiles don't break down like the male did, nor do they grow the shade trees in the churchyard.

Resolves before 10 o'clock tonight, Commerce News.

KEEFE INJURED BY AIRPLANE FALL

Kingston Young Man in Base Hospital Injured About Head and Chest and Unconscious, Writes Nurse O'Reilly.

Robert E. Keefe, son of Andrew J. Keefe of 231 Washington avenue, is lying in a base hospital in France badly injured, but hopes are entertained that he will recover. Mr. Keefe is a young man, a flyer in the U. S. Aviation Corps, who has been engaged during recent battles at the front and has been brevetted for his daring work in the air service. The news of his being injured through a fall, was conveyed in a letter sent by Cecelia I. O'Reilly of this city, to her mother, Mrs. Cecelia B. O'Reilly residing at No. 1 Andrew street. Miss O'Reilly is a nurse who has been in the United States foreign service for several months. The letter is dated September 18th and in it, among other things, she writes: "Am taking care of a boy from Kingston, a flyer in the name of Robert Keefe. He is injured about the head and chest and is unconscious." She adds on the next day that he was moving his hands and legs and hopes were entertained for his ultimate recovery. Mrs. O'Reilly writes to her mother in the letter: "If you only knew the type of men the flyers are—they are the cream of the United States."

Charles S. Keefe of 255 Lucas street, brother of Robert, has sent a telegram to the Y. M. C. A. and a telegram to Washington, seeking further information as to his brother's condition, and expects a reply tomorrow.

Robert A. Keefe is a graduate of the Kingston Academy and of Cornell University and went through college and field course on aviation with the highest honors, being sent to France where he was sent to a French school of aviation, being under the instruction of French army aviators and later made many flights at the front. He was for a long time a carrier boy for The Freeman, and always a manly, courteous and ever ready to carry out instructions. His many friends sincerely hope for his quick recovery and that he will not be maimed as a result of his accident while fighting for the righteous cause of the people of the United States and the Allies.

Miss Mary Ellen Gallagher of New York is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Rosanna McCabe, 294 Wall street.

L. S. Winne, the hardware dealer on Wall street, is at home on St. James street, with a grip cold.

Margaret, Mollie and Helen Sanford are confined to their home with influenza, under the care of Dr. Quinlan.

Leo V. Grogan, undertaker, and Democratic nominee for coroner, is ill with the influenza at his home, 37 Clinton avenue.

Mrs. John G. Baragwanath and her sister, Peruvian nurse maid are both ill with influenza at St. James's parsonage.

Rich Johnston, of Brooklyn is in town, being called here by reason of the illness of his brother, Peter A. Johnston, at his home, 133 Green street.

Mrs. Fred Rich, Jr., of 360 Hasbrouck avenue has been laid up with influenza and is under the care of Dr. Mambert and Mrs. Frank W. Roosa, and is now convalescing.

Unless registered you cannot vote. Friday and Saturday, last chance.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The board of police commissioners will hold a regular meeting at the city hall this evening.

Avnet Brothers' store, owing to a death in the family, will not be open until next Wednesday.

Do not fail to register today as you might become ill tomorrow. If you are not registered you cannot vote.

Owing to the serious illness of Jacob Myers, his meat market on Cedar street will be closed until further notice.

The building occupied by the Herbert Brush Company, corner of Hasbrouck avenue and Mill street, is being painted.

Mrs. Hayes desires a large attendance at the Red Cross meeting to be held tonight as there are a number of hospital bathrobes that have to be finished.

The street force is preparing the shale brick pavement on Broadway between Cornell street and Thomas street for a covering of Willite. It will be an experimental job.

The cake sale which was to have been held Saturday afternoon under the auspices of Circle No. 2 of the Ladies Aid Society of the Church of the Comforter, will be postponed on account of the epidemic to a later date.

Max Abel, a well known and popular downtown butcher, has opened a meat market at 133 Hasbrouck avenue and has his shop so arranged that it presents a neat and attractive appearance. That the grade of goods he offers for sale are of the best obtainable is evidenced by the increasing trade Mr. Abel is receiving daily. He deserves the patronage he is receiving.

SOCIETY NOTES.*Abbott-Seibert.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Wendell H. Abbott, formerly of this city, and Miss Irma Seibert, of Bloomfield, N. J., at the home of the bride's parents, on Saturday evening, October 12th. The bride is a graduate of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, and is a well known harpist. Mr. Abbott is a graduate of Ohio State University and is president of the Betsy Ross Flag Company of Newburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott will reside in Newburgh after an extended tour.

Dr. Basten in Practice.

Dr. George C. Basten of Abruy street, who gave up practice over a year ago when he underwent an operation for the removal of his leg, has again filled his medicine chest and is about giving treatment to help out in the grip epidemic. Dr. Basten, who is over 72 years old, and obliged to use crutches, makes his trip with horse and wagon. His sister, Miss Mary Basten, acts as coachman.

Zeebrugge in Flames.

By Telegram to The Freeman
London, Oct. 18.—Zeebrugge, on the Belgian coast, is in flames and tremendous fires can be seen in the direction of Bruges, said a Flushing dispatch to a news agency this afternoon.

All Must Register.

All female African-American voters must register on the 12th if they hope to participate in the coming state election.

IDA L. QUANS,
President.

Do not lose your vote by failing to register.

Teach Child to Love Pictures.

A child's taste in pictures can be cultivated by having in his room pictures which are good both as to color and subject. Pictures dealing with nature in any form are always attractive to a child and if they are hung low in the room so that the child can even handle them if he wants to, this adds much to his enjoyment.

Amalgams.

The best amalgams are brought from England, India, and from Siam, Japan and Persia. The chief supply of the blue variegated is from the peninsula of Siam, the great mining district of the ancient Egyptians.

Blankets! Blankets! Blankets!*Blankets!

Many of our customers have taken our advice and bought blankets before this. They looked at it this way. I need blankets: I will have to get them soon; I am being told that there is a possibility of blankets being hard to secure if a railroad congestion occurs as was the case last year; I am able to buy blankets at very moderate cost today at Van Wagenen's. I'm going right ahead and buy the blankets I need.

Tea Kettle Talk Number One

If the bottom of your tea kettle were extended down in the fire like this one, the water would boil in just half the time, because the fire would be coming against that much more water-filled surface.

Kingstonian Boilers

are made on exactly the same principle. The entire fire is surrounded top and sides by water. The pressure way it heats up the radiators and heats them heated, would open your eyes.

Spanish Influenza

What Dr. Deane Says:

Any person taking Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills three times a day is not likely to contract Spanish Influenza, as no bacterial disease will develop where this mixture is present. Influenza is a bacterial disease as has been determined. Those in yellow wrappers would be best where there is no constipation; where there is constipation use those in the white wrapper. I have gone through repeated epidemics mingling with and attending those who had it and never contracted it, as I have taken the pills for years.

Dr. J. A. DEANE.

If the germ is already in the system they will modify the disease as no germs will develop. The Heidelberg School of Medicine discovered years ago that one of the ingredients in these pills will also destroy the bacteria that produces typhoid fever and appendicitis.

MAYOR ENDORSES ARMORY HOSPITAL

Sets Forth Facts and Urges People to Use Common Sense in Fighting Influenza Epidemic.

Office of the Mayor,
Kingston, N. Y., October 18, 1918.
Editor of Freeman:

Let someone misunderstand the situation, permit me to state that the city emergency hospital at the armory is being conducted with the best possible service, in the rooms on the upper floor, with the best city physicians in attendance, and with registered and other nurses and assistants and with all necessary hospital and medical equipment, and every one there is being given careful and tender care.

We were met with a flood of influenza which is universal throughout this country as it has been in other countries.

Under the pressure of necessity, the board of health invited all of the physicians of the city and representatives of the two hospitals and a representative of the state department of health to meet with it on Tuesday night to determine the proper course to take and to take it.

It was the unanimous opinion of the board and of the dozen or more physicians present and of the hospital representatives and of Dr. Laidlaw of the state department that an offer from Captain Fowler for the use of the armory as an emergency hospital should be accepted.

The next morning early, Captain Fowler, members of the board, Drs. Chandler, O'Meara, Gates, Day, Van Hovenberg and also Dr. Laidlaw enlisted themselves into the service of converting the rooms on the upper floor, which are used as parlors for the officers and men of Company M, into an emergency hospital. Lieut. White and a corps of assistants of the Women's Ambulance Corps of the Home Defense Reserve forsook and forgot everything else and devoted themselves to the task with an amazing willingness and intelligent activity. The Boy Scouts got into harness and buckled in. Miss Davis from the high school cooking department and teachers from the high school took charge of the kitchen and transformed it into a model kitchen during the day. Women with service in their heart and usefulness in their minds offered their services as helpers and immediately got prepared for the patients to come. In one day the place had been cleaned, and cots and mattresses with new sheets and pillow cases had been installed and ice boxes, gas stoves, all kinds of necessary supplies, kitchen utensils, food and everything else necessary was obtained, and the place became a hospital fit for any patient.

A physician and a registered nurse and assistants are in attendance all of the time. No home can have such attention and no patient at his home can have such care. Several business men are acting in the ordinary capacity of orderlies. Everything necessary to alleviate the suffering of the patients is there, and everyone can rest assured that the best care awaits anyone who may be brought there. The physicians and the women and men are rendering this service without fee or pay, and they should be commended in the highest terms although they do not expect nor want it.

The people must have unquestioned confidence in the physicians of the city who have charge of this hospital being able to cope with the situation. Everyone should have a hopeful attitude of assurance as to the whole situation. It is much better than in most cities. It may last another week or more in its critical stage, but the physicians believe it has reached its peak and that the worst is past. However, people must obey the instructions given in the press from time to time for their guidance. No one should catch his pictures of the situation, or draw dreary conclusions from a woeful state of mind. No one should heed the words of any one who gives words of destruction or condemnation of the emergency hospital, who has not visited it and who speaks without any personal knowledge of the situation to base it upon, and who expresses an opinion based upon an incorrect premises.

Let us press forward to minimize the ill results which will flow from the epidemic, and to lessen the losses and anguish. Do not move in a paralyzing dread. Do not set on a barrel of gunpowder at this time. Do not invite anxiety, apprehension and want of confidence in the authorities and in the physicians of the city at this critical time. Kick away alarming mistrust and fight. Fight this battle as the boys are fighting theirs over there.

I appeal to all, for mercy's sake, have forbearance, charity of words and charity of deeds. We need the help of everyone qualified to serve. Let all who are still outside the circle of service step within and report at the armory. Lives have already been saved. More will be saved with the help of all.

Respectfully,
PALMER CAMPFIELD, JR.

MAX ABEL*KINGSTON CITY HOSPITAL REPORTS

Annual Meeting and Election Held Thursday Evening—Review of the Year's Work—Financial Report Made.

At the annual meeting of the City of Kingston Hospital held Thursday evening at the hospital, the report of Judge James A. Betts and of F. J. R. Clarke, treasurer, were read. Delancey N. Mathews was chairman of the meeting and F. J. R. Clarke acted as secretary in place of Dr. A. A. Stern, who is ill. Dr. George F. Chandler, Dr. A. A. Stern and George Burgerin were elected members of the board of managers. Owing to the illness of Dr. Stern his report as secretary was not read. The report of President Betts was presented and approved, being as follows:

To the Members of the City of Kingston Hospital:

In conformity with the by-laws of this institution, I respectfully submit a brief annual report of its work and conditions.

Once more we urge upon our citizens and the physicians of our city and county that the payment of twenty dollars by any physician, and the payment of twenty-five dollars by any other citizen constitutes such a person a life member of this hospital with the right to take an equal part with any other members in the hospital in its work. Also, that the payment of ten dollars by any person will constitute that individual a member of this hospital for one year, with the same privileges for that year as are possessed by life members. We have had through the election of those of the liberal donors to our institution during the last year quite an increase to our membership, but it is still much smaller than it was originally, and still much smaller than it ought to be in a town of this size. The president and managers urge that an effort should be put forth on the part of our members to increase the members of this corporation.

We have received in donations for general purposes during the past year as follows:

C. Hiltbrand Dry Dock Company, one thousand dollars; Anna Van Leuven, fifty dollars; Myron S. Teller, by services, one hundred six dollars and fifty cents; the Hon. Jacob Rice, for furnishing women's ward, four hundred dollars; Herbert Brush Manufacturing Company, for furnishing men's ward, five hundred dollars. We have been paid since our last annual report, the following legacies: Mary O. Dimmick Estate, one thousand dollars; Fannie E. Anderson, devoted to the building fund by her desire, ten thousand dollars; Jessie M. Preston, in memory of her mother, Adelaide Green Van Eiten, one thousand dollars. The large bequest given by Mrs. Anderson has been and is being devoted by the managers to the renovating, repairs and improvements of what is termed the old hospital, much of which has already been placed in a first-class condition, and for which the grateful acknowledgment of the members of the hospital are due for the kindly and munificent bequest of Mrs. Anderson. Mrs. Jane Neome O'Leary has by her will bequeathed to this hospital the sum of five thousand dollars. The late Mrs. Caroline Schick has also, by her will made this hospital the residuary legatee of one-fifth of her estate. It is estimated that the amount to be received by the hospital under Mrs. Schick's will will amount to about the sum of one thousand dollars. Neither Mrs. O'Leary's nor Mrs. Schick's will have been probated.

Our endowment fund from which we are receiving an income, now amounts to the sum of twenty-two thousand nine hundred sixty-eight dollars, the greater part of which fund has been given by charitably inclined citizens of this city and county. In addition to which amount we have invested and are investing in contributions and legacies in the new hospital and its furnishings and in furnishing, renovating, repairing and decorating the old hospital, the sum of forty-six thousand nine hundred eighty-two dollars and twenty-eight cents. The managers feel that when the repairs and changes that are now being made to the old hospital building are completed, that we will have a complete up-to-date hospital, one of the best of its size in the locality, an inspection of which is invited of all those who have so contributed, as well as by all our citizens.

For further details of the finances of the institution and its present condition, reference is had to the very complete report of our treasurer, Frederick J. R. Clarke, which is submitted by him.

The secretary of the medical and surgical staff is ill and many of his associates are also ill at this time, afflicted by the prevailing epidemic. Two of our medical or surgical staff who are well, are busy practicing day and night, and many are the all people of the city and vicinity, and the secretary and his associates have been unable at this time to furnish to the members of the hospital their annual report.

At the annual meeting, the report of the medical and surgical staff, which was submitted to the members of the hospital, was read and approved. The report of the medical and surgical staff, which was submitted to the members of the hospital, was read and approved.

Improved; thirty were discharged unimproved; two were transferred to other institutions and fifty-one died, and there were remaining on June 30, 1918, twenty-four patients in the hospital. There were on October 16, 1918, thirty-four patients being treated in our hospital. The hospital is still indebted to the Rondout Savings Bank in the sum of ten thousand dollars, secured by a mortgage for a loan for the completion of our new hospital building.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hospital Board has also been very active during this last year in aiding the managers and the superintendent and nurses of the institution in many ways; they have furnished great quantities of bedding, towels and blankets, and much of the supplies needed in the hospital. With all the other demands upon their time and efforts and on account of the war, our ladies have apparently given just as freely and unreservedly of their time and money as they did when less of outside effort was demanded of them, and our hospital shows the benefit received by their careful painstakingly charitable work.

The managers cannot too strongly commend the intelligent successful labors of the medical and surgical staff of this hospital during the past year. The managers, the hospital members and our citizens, owe a great debt to the members of this staff for gratuitous services involving much inconvenience, discomfort and labor and the business loss of professional employment. Any person committed to our hospital even if without means, has the best medical and surgical treatment that this vicinity can bestow, which treatment is given freely, gratuitously and cheerfully, on the part of our physicians and surgeons.

Our superintendent, Miss Ryan, and our excellent corps of nurses are doing very capable effective work in their treatment of our patients. The managers thank the residents of our city and county for the substantial assistance and kindnesses that they are constantly bestowing upon our hospital.

More people have been treated this last year, I think, (without the report of the medical and surgical staff before me) than have ever been treated in this hospital during any year, and this we have been able to do by our increased facilities. The number that have been treated and benefited shows the great wisdom shown by our citizens in giving funds sufficient for the enlargement of the hospital and is a very striking commendation of the foresight of those who urged the enlargement.

All of which is respectfully submitted by order of the Board of Managers.

Dated, Kingston, N. Y., October 17, 1918.

JAMES A. BETTS, President.

SAFETY IN TIRE CHAINS ON AUTO

Drivers Regard These Devices as the Last Word in Avoiding Serious Accidents.

BEST WAY FOR USING THEM

One on Each Wheel Affords Greatest Security—Drape It Over Wheel for Clean Job—It Should Be Fastened Tightly.

Whether on wet pavements or on muddy country roads, the chains are the last word in the prevention of accidents. But, like everything else connected with the automobile, there is a great deal of ignorance concerning their use.

In bad going a car should have a chain on each wheel, or, if the motorist does not care to buy that many, one on each rear wheel is imperative. Some people only use one, applied to the left rear wheel. When the brakes are applied the left wheel holds the ground better than the right, causing the car to slew to the left and, so increasing the danger of an accident. The left rear wheel is chosen, as there is then no danger of damaging the chain by running against the curb.

The type of chain used is called "ladder chain," as it has two side lengths fitted with cross links or "grips." At the end are clamps to fasten the chains on the tires, of which more anon. The side chains will last two or three years with proper care, but the cross links will have to be renewed frequently during the season. The clamps at the ends are depended on to keep the chain in place, and so must be reliable. If the clips that help clamp the ends together do not fit tightly they will allow the ends to separate, and the chain is lost. Examine them carefully and bend them in so that it requires quite an effort to close each clip and a greater one to open it. Then it is reasonably safe.

Need Not Jack Up Wheel.

The novice jacks up his wheel to put on a chain—not so the experienced motorist. There are two ways of applying the chain. One is to drape it over the wheel, the other is to lay it on the ground and run the car over it. The latter method, apart from the difficulty of steering in straight over something you cannot see has the added disadvantage that the chain on a muddy road is in bad condition to handle. So drape it over the wheel, and you will have a much clearer job.

Apply it in such a way that the points of the cross links are away from the tire so as to prevent them from cutting into it. Leave the clamps toward the back of the car.

This draws them forward as the car wheel revolves with a wiping motion that helps to keep them close, whereas the opposite method will result in their loosening sooner or later and dropping off. Having draped the chain properly over the wheel, run the car forward for a rear wheel and backward for a front wheel. This brings the ends out where they can be gotten at to the best advantage.

Avoid Use of Tool.

Never use a tool to tighten up the chains, as they may be fastened so tightly they cannot creep, and so distribute the wear. If they always stay in one spot on the shoe they soon cut in and ruin the tread. Of course, in the case of a woman, one whose strength is not equal to the task, a tool will be useful, but care must be exercised not to get the chain too tight. In line with this caution is a similar one not to fasten the chain to a spoke.

The parts of the cross links that come in contact with the ground are case hardened, that is, they are made of wrought iron with a casing of hardened steel. This resists wear for a long time, but wears through eventually, after which the link soon wears out and breaks. The end pieces are not hardened, and so may be very cas-

My worked by a special tool. There are several chain tools on the market, and it is difficult to decide among them. One should be chosen which has good leverage and opens or closes the links with the least effort. By the use of a proper tool the broken links may be replaced while the chain is on the wheel—a very important point. If the tool is missing or absent, however, one may drive a screwdriver through the link to open it and close it with a hammer.

BRAKES SHOULD BE IN GOOD CONDITION

Importance of Inspection of Mechanism Is Overlooked.

Sixty Per Cent of Accidents Could Be Avoided if Motorist Would Pay More Attention to Them—Stop by Coasting.

The importance of the condition of one's brakes cannot be overemphasized. There is a growing sentiment among traffic officials in various parts of the country that some system of regular brake inspection should be devised. An official of the Motortruck Club of America says that 60 per cent of the accidents caused by brake trouble could be averted if motorists would pay more attention to their brakes and have them inspected regularly. The fact that brake bands are out of sight is one reason assigned for their neglect, he says.

Too much use of the brakes is made by the average driver. This wears them, racks the mechanism and injures the tires. A driver should learn to stop by coasting to the point where the stop is to be made. This may be learned with a little practice and should always be done on a level road. If you find you are going a little too far a light pressure on the pedal will do. This is far better than dashing up to the spot and then jamming the brakes to make a spectacular stop. Besides wearing the brake lining and attachments it racks the tires, sometimes making the wheels lock and the tires slide.

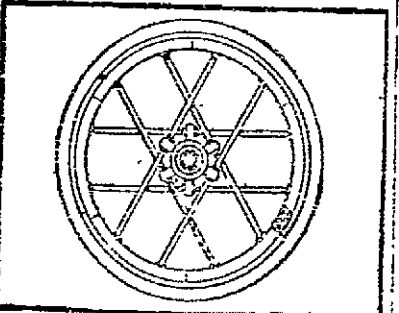

In coasting down hill the brakes should be used alternately. By changing from service brake to emergency the first is allowed to cool, prolonging its life. The longer it lasts the less cost to the motorist. Changing from one brake to other does not cool the drums on the wheels, as one brake operates on the outside and the other on the inside of each drum. So it is advisable to relieve both brakes as much as possible.

SPRING WHEEL IS INVENTED

Hub Suspended Flexibly in a Degree of Elasticity Dependent on Gauge of Spokes.

The Scientific American in illustrating and describing a spring wheel, the invention of W. H. McQueen of Greenville, Miss., says:

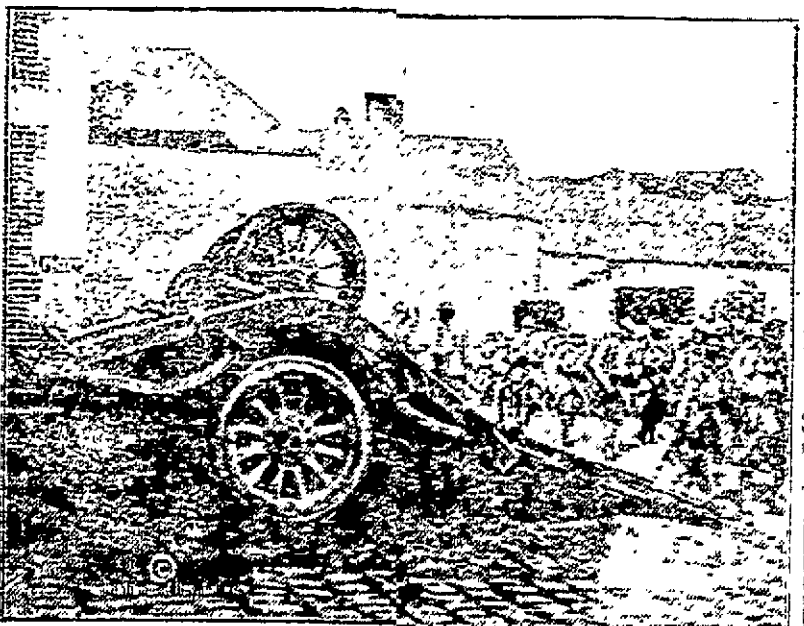

"The invention provides for wheels including a felly having a solid tire, and a hub, together with a plurality of spokes, each of which extends in one piece entirely across the wheel, and has loose bearings at its ends in connection with the felly and is further provided with an intermediate bearing upon the hub, the spokes being extended tangentially with respect to the hub and crossing one another angularly between the hub and the felly, whereby to flexibly suspend the hub in a degree of elasticity dependent upon the gauge of the spokes.

WONDERFUL TRAILER THAT MOVES BIG GUNS

The first photograph to arrive in this country, showing the new trailer that is being used by the French army for the transportation of cannons of the 24-millimeter caliber and the gun calipers. This trailer is attached to an auto-truck and is capable of moving not only the cannon itself, but the caissons and boxes. With the use of this new trailer the work of displacing of batteries is facilitated to a remarkable degree and aids in moving quickly to re-enforce the armies at points where guns of this caliber are seriously needed.

Saving Grain From Fire.

A South Dakota builder has suggested a simple method of saving grain in country elevators from fire. The grain bins should be provided with trap doors in the outer walls of the building. In case of fire the doors are opened and the grain pours out on the ground.

Beyond Power of Law.

To stop a woman's tongue is beyond the power of the law. A man asked a Belfast magistrate for a summons the other day to stop his wife's tongue, as she talked too much. He was told that the law could order him to be silent.

WHERE LIBERTY BOND FUNDS GO

FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS IN LIBERTY BONDS WILL BUY:

ONE SUB-MARINE mine, or one team of horses, or 10 cavalry saddles, or 10,000 rifle or machine gun cartridges, or 10 trenching tools (small shovels) for two companies; or two medium weight machine guns, or a dozen rifles, or 20 incendiary airplane bombs, or 20 six-inch shells, or the complete equipment for two cavalry horses, or enough high explosives for four 14-inch shells, or 600 hot water bags.

It will outfit two soldiers completely for a year overseas, or clothe four sailors, or feed four whole companies of infantry for a day.

OBSERVATION BALLOONIST HAS A PRECARIOUS JOB

The observation balloonist at the front has a precarious job. It is his duty to spy out enemy positions, but he has to do it without camouflage or protection. He presents a clear target for enemy guns. While his work is extremely dangerous, it is also extremely important. Liberty Bonds will enable Uncle Sam to buy more of these important adjuncts to present day warfare.

STEPS TO BERLIN!

Mr. Charles U. Winchester, president of the J. B. Lyon Company at Albany, in a statement today declares that the Fourth Liberty Loan should make the Kaiser realize that "there is no halfway measure in the hearts of the American people."

"Each Liberty Bond," said Mr. Winchester, "is a step on the road to Berlin. The whole civilized world is united in the conviction that the Hun must be driven back to Berlin and there, confined within his own boundaries while the world dictates a peace which will make impossible for the future any of the horrors of the present time."

"The German Kaiser must be made to see that there is no halfway measure in the hearts of the American people. America is now committed to the war. She must finish it. She must not only protect the men who are over there in the fighting zone, but she must also send more millions of troops and supplies."

"So the Fourth Liberty Loan must be heavily oversubscribed both as a practical war measure and for its moral effect upon the foe, who already is in retreat."

Liberty Bonds Will Tame This

Copyright Life Pub. Co. Reproduced from LIFE, Sept. 14, 1914.

The Battle Cry of Freedom

Abraham Lincoln said: "All you have to do is to keep the faith, to remain steadfast to the right, to stand by your banner. Nothing should lead you to leave your guns. Stand together, ready with match in hand."—Chicago, March 1, 1862.

The match in your hand that will fire a gun against autocracy is a Liberty Bond.

Others Also Have Wandered. "When I saw a man playing the violin," said Uncle Eben, "I don't help wonder why he doesn't pick on something nearer his own size."

Sardine Oil.

A new industry has lately become established on the west coast of southern India for the manufacture from the sardines of fish oil and sardine meal. Sardines in many thousands of tons had been dried whole on the beach for manure, but by this wasteful process all the oil was lost.

ABE MARTIN.

No man is justified in thinking he's done his bit until he's the owner of at least one bond of every one of the four Liberty loans.

TO AMERICA AT WAR.

By CALE YOUNG RICE.
(For the Fourth Liberty Loan.)
Oh, my America, I could swear
None ever had a country till this hour.
When men have found within their hearts
The power,

Fighting for more than country, to endure

The soul of Liberty, half-born till now,
With strength to link the patriot's
lesser plan

Unto the larger of Humanity—
Which sees at last that war must end, and how!

Fight then the fight for Freedom, as of old,

And even more for Union! For, apart,
Nations will ever stab each to the heart.

And Freedom for a pottage mess' be sold.

Fight for the greatest flag ever unfurled,
For one to encompass you—and all the world!

Do not lose your vote by failing to register.

TROCO

TROCO Time Is Here

THESE bleak, chilly days bring us Troco at its best just when we need it most. When you want it spread thick on biscuits and griddle cakes. When it makes Sunday morning waffles better with its sweet, delicate flavor.

Moderate price allows you to use all you want—on the table and for cooking.

The more the better from the standpoint of health. Troco is high in calorie value—and calories give us strength and energy and help keep us warm.

When Troco Is Best The Old Time Product Is Highest

The banner Troco season begins at the most opportune time—just when prices of other products are soaring.

It gives the quality, the perfection of flavor and texture, that is only found in the finest table product.

All at a modest price that means a saving of from 15c to 20c on every pound you buy. Without the slightest sacrifice in satisfaction or quality.

Fresh Shipments of Troco Always En Route

Every few days we receive shipments of Troco—every carton fresh and sweet, straight from the churn.

When you taste it you will say Troco cannot be surpassed in true goodness by any product, regardless of its prestige. This is because the Troco Company knows how to incorporate the true flavor.

For Troco is made by a special process—churned from pure white coconut fat and pasteurized milk.

Don't judge it by other nut margarines. They are wholesome enough products, but they haven't the Troco flavor.

Order From Your Dealer

Order Troco from your dealer. He has it or can get it for you. Don't accept a substitute—you want Troco—for flavor and food value. A capsule of pure vegetable coloring supplied by your dealer.

Fourth Liberty Loan

Serbian Flag Day.

New York, Oct. 18.—Today is Serbian Flag Day in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign. The national flag of Serbia is red, blue and white. These colors run in horizontal stripes in the order above named. This flag has become one of the most battle-scarred flags of Europe in this struggle for world freedom as Serbia has bravely and courageously faced the enemy for four years.

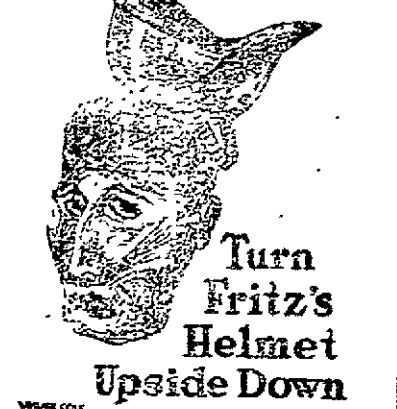

Serbia declared war on Germany August 6, 1914.

THE RATE PER CENT.

Liberty Bonds bear interest commensurate with the desires of the buyer. One Liberty Bond will pay one billion per cent. to your children. For it will enable them to live as free, untrampled people, it will pay billions upon billions of per cent. to the boys "over there," for it will give them comfort and the implements to keep up the fight and will act as an incentive to the best effort in return for the effort of those at home; it will pay untold per cent. to the buyer in contentment, satisfaction and the consciousness of having done one's duty to the country, the free world and to the buyer's children.

Books close on October 19, so hurry up and get your subscription in.

WITH OUR BOYS AT THE FRONT IN FRANCE

RECEIVING A MESSAGE AT THE COMMANDER'S DUGOUT.

A courier is bringing the message calling for a barrage at a certain point, perhaps to forestall a Hun attack, perhaps to pave the way for our boys to go after Fritz. A barrage of Liberty Bonds is one way to bring about the end of the war, and every one who loves his country can throw a shell or a series of shells at the enemy by buying bonds to the limit. Get ready to attack now!

Mend the Leaky Pen.

If one is troubled with a leaky fountain pen, the application of a little soap to the threads of the screw will work magic. If the pen is emptied, thoroughly cleaned, filled, and the soap applied, I am sure there will be no more trouble until the pen needs refilling.

Any Honest Task Attractive.

Any honest task is capable of being so largely considered that the who enters into it may see, stretching before him, the promise of things to do and do, that will stir his enthusiasm and satisfy his best desires.—Phillips Brooks.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Some say that we should eat to live, And some say live to eat. But look at it which ever way, 'Tis true, to live, we eat.

SUGGESTIONS FOR HOUSEWIVES.

When choosing fish see that the eyes are bright, not glazed and sunken, with flesh firm and odor good.

It is up to you to protect against the bread from the baker's carts being carried uncovered from the cart or bread handled with the uncovered hands of a driver. See that each loaf is wrapped in sanitary paper or that the basket is protected from dust and germs.

Before using a casserole or any earthen baking dish, temper it by putting it into cold water and boiling it, then let it cool gradually.

Add sugar to the fruit when using it for sauce; after it is partly cooked it will require less sugar to sweeten it. Keep a little powdered pumice to remove stains from under the nails. Apply with a toothpick or an orange stick.

Look to see that your milk bottles are holding the standard measure. Wipe carefully before opening and pouring out the milk or cream.

An easy way to fill preserve jars is to use a gravy boat. The handle makes it easy to dip and the spout is just right to enter the jar top.

Surgeons' plaster is most useful for many things. Bind a piece over a hard corn or callus. This will keep them moist and, like the wicked, they "will cease from troubling."

When hot fat is spilled on the floor dash on cold water at once. This will cool and harden the fat and it can, most of it, be scraped off before it has soaked into the wood.

When the cane seats in chairs begin to sag wet them with hot soapsuds on the bottom, rinse in hot water and dry.

Use the small-sized clothespins, as they stay on better than the larger ones.

Never let dishwater dry in the towels; rinse first in cold water to harden and remove the grease, if any, then wash in hot soapsuds, rinse again and dry. Towels treated in this way and not used on baking dishes will keep white.

Keep a cork on the letter file or spindle on the desk. It may save an eye or more.

How To Use Vick's VapoRub in Treating Spanish Influenza

The Influenza Germs Attack the Lining of the Air Passages. When VapoRub is Applied Over Throat and Chest the Medicated Vapors Loosen the Phlegm, Open the Air Passages and Stimulate the Mucous Membrane to Throw Off the Germs.

In Addition, VapoRub is Absorbed Through and Stimulates the Skin, Attracting the Blood to the Surface and Thus Aids in Reducing the Congestion Within.

CALL A PHYSICIAN—GO TO BED—STAY QUIET—DON'T WORRY

There is no occasion for panic—Influenza itself has a very low percentage of fatalities, not one out of every four hundred cases, according to the N. C. Board of Health. The chief danger lies in complications arising, attacking principally patients in a run down condition—those who don't get to bed soon enough, or those who get up too early.

Spanish Influenza which appeared in Spain in May has all the appearance of grip or la grippe, which has swept over the world in numerous epidemics as far back as history runs. Hippocrates refers to an epidemic in 412 B. C. which is regarded by many to have been influenza. Every century has had its attacks. Beginning with 1811, this country has had five epidemics, the last in 1889-90.

THE SYMPTOMS.

Grip, or influenza as it is now called, usually begins with a chill followed by aching, feverishness, and sometimes nausea and dizziness and a general feeling of weakness and depression. The temperature is from 100 to 101 and the fever usually lasts from three to five days. The germs attack the mucous membrane, or lining of the air passages—nose, throat and bronchial tubes—there is usually a hard cough especially bad at night often times a sore throat or tonsillitis, and frequently all the appearances of a severe head cold.

THE TREATMENT.

Go to bed at the first symptoms, not only for your own sake but to avoid spreading the disease to others—take a purgative, eat plenty of nourishing food, remain perfectly quiet and don't worry. Quinine, as a tonic, is of little use. Aspirin, or Dover's Powder, etc., may be administered by the physician's directions to relieve the aching. But there is no cure or specific for influenza—the disease must run its course, but nature herself with throw off the attack if only you keep up your strength. The chief danger lies in the complications which may arise. Influenza so weakens the bodily resistance that there is danger of pneumonia or bronchitis developing and sometimes inflammation of the middle ear, or heart affections. For these reasons, it is very important that the patient remain in bed until his strength returns—stay in bed at least two days or more after the fever has left you, or if you are over 50 or not strong, stay in bed four days or more, according to the severity of the attack.

EXTERNAL APPLICATIONS.

In order to stimulate the lining of the air passages to throw off the grip germs, to aid in loosening the phlegm and keeping the air passages open, thus making the breathing easier, Vick's VapoRub will be found effective. Hot, wet towels should be applied over the throat, chest and back.

Billeting and Barbara

By HARMONY WELLER

(Copyright, 1918, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Even after war had been declared and the troops were actually on the march, Barbara Heathcote failed to realize the gravity of the situation. Comfortably ensconced in her great country bungalow, surrounded by servants and every luxury, she did not see the necessity of worrying about a war which would not upset her own well-ordered existence.

Barbara had not stopped to realize that the little village in Bedfordshire was right on the line of march, nor did she know that, being a householder, she would be ordered to provide temporary shelter for officers and men of the troops when they should pass on the way to battle grounds.

It was with great surprise that she found herself watching an officer retreating from her door having billeted a score of soldiers on her. She had been asked, "In the name of the king," to provide shelter for a day or two for the men on the march, and Barbara had been first indignant, then indifferent. Her servants, she decided, could make provision for the soldiers.

But Barbara's equilibrium was upset. War had been forced into her consciousness and she wished the troops had taken another route to the battle grounds. She disliked annoyance of any kind, for she was self and self-centered.

"Where will these troops sleep?" she asked her old servant.

"On the veranda, Miss Barbara, and in the garden," replied Jenkins, more excited than the soldiers themselves.

"We will feed them in the servants' hall."

When Jenkins had gone Barbara's brow puckered. She well knew that fighting men were accustomed to hardship, but the thought of them sleeping on wooden floors or perhaps in the dew-dampened garden was not pleasant. Certainly it would disturb her own night's rest to have them there. During the day, however, she tried to harden herself by the thought that there was much worse ahead of them than sleeping in sheltered gardens.

In the evening when a score or more of tired but laughing soldiers in khaki came trooping through the great hedge gate Barbara watched them with quickly beating heart. Somehow and without warning a sharp emotion gripped her. She tried to stifle a desire to cry and wondered why she should feel so helpless all of a sudden. The men were big and brave and were going off happily to fight for their country and their womanfolk. She, Barbara, who was nourished and cared for as if she were a household god, was miserable, and the realization of her own smallness dawned on her.

She looked again at the men now going toward the back of the house, and their war kites brought fresh emotion to Barbara's heart. They were going to battle for perhaps months and no one knew when they would be back. Never before had Barbara seen the troops in full war kit, and the meanness of their equipment appalled her. She who had slept beneath rose-colored cloud-captives all her life could conceive of nothing so terrible as that pitiful supply of human comforts. She turned from the window and to the telephone.

"Jenkins," she called down to her old servant, "how that cook provides for an expense or trouble to make them comfortable?"

When she had hung up the receiver Barbara felt a little more like herself. After all, most of the men would be taken from the war. She was questioning herself for vague fears. She tried to throw off the ghastly picture that the sight of the troops had put before her, but it was useless, now that her own doorstep was thronged with soldiers, to feel other than fearful for their fate. Again she wished that the burden of worry had not been dumped on her. The thought went a mile of shame over her. Perhaps for the first time in her entire life Barbara knew how deeply selfish she was. She was regretting the entrance into her life of that score of brave men, and the women who had lost them were to dole weepers in anguish. Barbara felt the sting of her own weakness and the utter uselessness of her life.

"Even my servants are doing something for those men," she told herself when she heard a burst of laughter from the direction of the lower dining hall. "They don't know I am in the house," she added thoughtfully. "I am an atom in this world and each of those men is a king." Barbara pondered then as she had never pondered before. Her own insignificance, the desperate reality of war and its suffering, together with the misery that must come in the wake of battle, all these thoughts held Barbara Heathcote in a grip of introspection. So long did she sit in the darkness that before she knew it the troops billeted on her had ceased their laughter and flung themselves down on veranda and garden lawn to woo sleep as best they might.

Barbara jumped up and peered down at them and the tears blurred her sight. A pale moon threw her radiance on the upturned faces of the men and on their rifles and caps. An occasional murmur told Barbara that sleep had not yet claimed them.

With sudden inspiration Barbara went into the drawing room and began singing gently so as not to startle the men. Her voice filtering through the open windows swept like the touch of angel wings over the soldiers' emotions, and not one of them spoke a word.

A young lieutenant surreptitiously brushed the moisture from his eyes with khaki-colored sleeve. His sweetheart had tried to sing for him that song at parting, but her voice had broken.

Stop! Barbara's voice, too, had broken. She jumped up and went swiftly into the moonlight among the soldiers. They arose as one man at her coming and stood looking at the slim white figure.

"I can't stand it to have you sleeping out here," she said breathlessly. "You must all come inside. I will have all the room necessary." She smiled when they demurred, and commanded in a most adorable manner. "Please let me have my way," she said. "I have never done anything in my whole life for anyone save myself. Please let me do what I can now." And because she was crying Barbara hastened to help Jenkins make up the many beds in the great house. It cheered her considerably to be doing some trifling thing in the war movement, and out of the joy she derived from making up those beds Barbara knew that never more could she be happy while there were those in the world less fortunate than she.

The troops remained only until the morning of the third day, and when they had marched off with their bands playing and a smile on their lips Barbara wept as if her heart would break. Bedfordshire was impossible to her after that. The life of ease and luxury was not to be borne. She could not sit idly by and wait for news from the front; she must go and be a part of that working contingent and do her mite.

Barbara knew that somewhere some day, after the great war was over, she would again stand beside the young lieutenant commander who had slept beneath her roof on the way to battle. His eyes had told her that he would come back to her, and Barbara was living only for that day and for the good she might do to be worthy of him.

"I am glad," thought Barbara, "that I lived on the line of marching. Otherwise I might never have known Lieutenant Commander Blakely." She smiled softly and added, "and yet—I must surely have met him some day."

THEY WENT THE OTHER WAY

Arrogant German Too Confident as to What Soldiers Would Be on the Vatterland.

The archbishop of York, speaking in the Mansion house, London, told a story related to him while in America. At the launching of the Vatterland, the Hamburg-American chairman asked an American naval officer: "How many troops do you think I could put aboard her?"

Answering his own question, he said: "I can put 10,000, and some day shall bring them across to the United States."

The naval officer replied: "If you do, I hope I shall be there to see them."

The archbishop concluded: "That some American naval officer put 10,000 American soldiers into the Vatterland (now the Leviathan) and sent them across the other way to fight the Germans."

Short Will for $320,000. One of the shortest wills ever filed was admitted to probate in the register's office recently, when the testament of George V. Marshall, former manufacturer of passenger and freight elevators of Pittsburg was filed.

The will disposed of an estate of $300,000 and was written in four lines and contained less than thirty words. Mr. Marshall left his entire estate to his widow, Mrs. Emma L. Marshall, who was named executrix. The estate is divided into personal property valued at $50,000 and real estate $250,000.

Know What's Berries? You see people, we suggest, have tried watermelons, and many do not know what they are. To be an excuse for their ignorance, as experts were long in doubt whether the fruit was the same as the bilberry, but the Scots call them bilberries as an account of their color, which is a genuine blue, and so in the "Merry Widow" pie to instruct the fairy to "pinch them blue as bilberry."
